

Ruth Page

Ruth Page was born in West Virginia, where she attended West Virginia University and earned a Bachelor of Science in Nursing. She began her career as an Emergency Department R.N. and has worked in multiple hospitals in the eastern areas of the United States. She continued to practice in various areas of nursing, including Travel Nursing. During the 1980s she had the wonderful experience of being a “Visiting Nurse” with the Visiting Nurse Association of Palm Beach County and provided care to the western communities during the AIDS Epidemic.

Ruth made Florida her home in 1986 and completed her nursing career the same way it began, retiring in 2017 as an E.R. nurse at Bethesda Memorial Hospital after 17 years of service. She continues volunteering as a registered nurse and as a Guardian ad Litem for children in Palm Beach County.

Ruth is honored to receive the “Aging Gracefully” award but cites aging gracefully as a testimony to God’s graciousness and goodness. Born to parents who led her to faith in Jesus Christ at an early age, Ruth believes that aging gracefully is connected to growing in grace and knowledge of Him, and she strives to live according to His calling in all areas of her life. Ruth’s advice for aging gracefully is based on Psalm 34:8: “Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the one who takes refuge in Him.”
