

GERDA KLEIN

Gerda Klein is an experienced senior executive with significant accomplishments in the non-profit sector. A key contributor and professional leader, driving development, public relations, marketing, and community awareness activities for major community-based organizations. Experienced educator providing leadership as department chair, teacher, and trainer. Community leader in key community action, philanthropic, and religious groups. Successfully met goals in raising funds for various community-based organizations.