

Linda Boone Allen

Linda Boone Allen spent most of her life in the Boynton Beach and Delray Beach area. She is a proud graduate of the local school system and Palm Beach Junior College, where she completed a two-year nursing program. She worked for 17 years at Bethesda Hospital before retiring and pursuing her passion for entrepreneurship. Over the years, she has owned two Curves fitness centers, a bridal shop, and currently own a nursing agency. She is also a licensed Realtor® with Coldwell Banker.

She is presently serving as a Councilwoman for the Town of Hypoluxo and remain actively involved in her church, where she has been a member for over 42 years. She has served as Head Trustee, and her husband is an Elder. Together, they have three children and seven wonderful grandchildren.

Exercise and healthy eating have always been an important part of her life. These days, she is an avid pickleball player. She spends a good amount of time in the gym, and she loves to walk. She loves the Lord and is thankful for all He's done in her life. Now at 71, she is excited and ready for God's next chapter.
