Dream Big Pajamas: Purpose & Possibilities

Join Rhonda's Promise, Inc. in helping middle and high school girls build confidence, explore their potential, and prepare to lead. We invite businesses, community partners, and individual donors to sponsor Girls Chat Leadership Conference 5.0, a half-day experience connecting girls with encouragement, practical learning, and positive role models.

Your support opens doors

Sponsorship helps support conference space, workshop materials, participant meals and refreshments, and a welcoming learning experience. Your investment helps us bring girls together to explore leadership, goal setting, financial literacy, and their future possibilities.
